The Barre Historical association has been in correspondence with the postmaster of Barre, England, for the sake of the friendly feeling brought about through a comparison of the two places of like name. The writer from England sent a history of his town and invited any Barre Vermont, boy to run out and see the English Barre. So far as known there is only one town in the United States by the name of Barre and there is but one in England with that name. The Barre Historical association of Vermont will attempt to learn if there is any connection between the two towns in their early history.

DOCTOR PRESCRIBES VINOL

For This Weak Nervous Mother, Because He Knows the Formula.

Jacksonville, Ill.—"I have a twenty-months-old baby and keep house for my little family, but got into a weak, nervous, run-down condition, tired all the time and no ambition. My doctor told me to try Vinol and in a week I felt like a new person. I am now strong again, look after my baby, and do all my housework."—Mrs. G. H. Lamson.

The reason we recommend Vinol, is because it is a constitutional remedy, containing beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates, the most successful tonics known.

SAGE TEA DARKENS

HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-Time Recipe That Anybody Can Apply.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring fading, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyle's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair. A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application of two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.—Adv.

PICTURING THE COAL SHORTAGE.

State Fuel Administrator Jones Asks for Photographs.

To the Local Chairman: The United States fuel administration, together with other emergency war organizations, is desirous of being represented in the official pictorial history and record of the war. It is very probable that in your community there are professional and amateur photographers who have pictures of incidents in the distribution and conservation of coal, especially during the shortage last winter, and we have no doubt that a request from you through the local newspapers or otherwise would result in having many of those pictures donated for the use of the government. Each picture should be accompanied by full explanatory information or captions.

We should be very glad to receive pictures of heavy coal trains, camouflaged barges, snow bound and frozen equipment of all kinds, broad lines at coal yards; and, on the conservation side, photographs of "white ways" on regular and lightless nights, early closing scenes, heatless Mondays, gasolineless Sundays. Pictures of wood piles, forest views of wood cutters at work, etc., would be particularly appreciated.

Any material of the above nature should be forwarded without delay to this office. Your co-operation in this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Yours very truly,
H. J. M. Jones,
Vermont Fuel Adm.
